The Institute for Human Services

Alana Ola Pono Kauhale

What is the Alana Ola Pono Kauhale?

Welcome to a different kind of community! Alana Ola Pono Kauhale is a friendly neighborhood of tiny homes where you can rebuild your life and find stability. We combine personal freedom with community support, giving you both independence and help when you need it.

Think of us as a stepping stone – a place where you can work on your goals while having a safe, stable home. Our community helps each other grow stronger together.

Our Program Serves:

Individuals and couples, 18 and older who need a fresh start • People who are homeless or might be soon • Anyone working through substance use challenges • People ready to take steps toward a better future

What We Are Offering:

45 tiny homes, 5 wheelchair-accessible • Privacy of individual rooms • Service animals and pets with papers allowed • Personal guidance from caring staff Help finding and keeping work • Gain leadership skills for living in community.

For more information, contact Rhonda Wong-Fernandez at rhondaw@ihshawaii.org or (808) 372-4313

The Institute for Human Services

Alana Ola Pono Kauhale

Entry Requirements to Get Started:

Ready to work toward your goals • Affordable Program fees • Bring your mana'o to contriibute to our ohana • Flexible rules that work with your job schedule

Rules for Living in Our Community:

Able to care for yourself independently • Commit to improving your health • Be a good neighbor to others • Get a basic health check when you arrive • Take pride in your space and our community

How Our Community Works:

Mix of short and long-term residents • Experienced residents help guide newer ones • Learn from each other and others who've found success • Invitation to participate in a wide array of community activities of your choice • Work opportunities available here in the Iwilei neighborhood • Take ownership of your community

What Makes Us Special:

Built on helping each other succeed • Balance of new and established residents • Work where you live • Choose programs that fit your needs • On-site kitchen and laundry facilities • Real chance to build a stable future

Alana Ola Pono
KAUHALE

Developed in partnership with

homeaid HAWAII

Operated by

Scan our QR code to learn more about the Alana Ola Pono Kauhale

For more information, contact Rhonda Wong-Fernandez at rhondaw@ihshawaii.org or (808) 372-4313